

WAS SENTENCED; THEN FELL ASLEEP.

Henry Thomas Given one Year in Penitentiary Promptly Took a Nap.

SNORED IN THE COURT ROOM.

Pleasant Dreams of a Comfortable Winter Were Broken Into by a Deputy Sheriff.

Henry Thomas, a colored man, received a sentence from Judge Lewis this morning in the criminal division of the district court, which put him to sleep, for within three minutes after the penalty was imposed he was snoring in the court room and had to be awakened by the deputy sheriff when he was ready to take the prisoner back to the county jail. Thomas pleaded guilty to housebreaking and was sentenced to one year in the state prison. He broke into a box car at the Rio Grande depot on Dec. 8, and stole a revolver, a watch, razor and a vest. He wore the vest and watch to the Grand theater on the night after the theft and the man from whom he stole the goods sat next to him and recognized his property and had Thomas arrested. After sentence was passed, Thomas was told to take his seat. He did so and in a few minutes was fast asleep, and probably dreaming of the happy days he spent at the prison where he will be protected from the fierce, wintry blasts this winter.

NORI B. GETS $1,750.

Judgment by Stipulation Against Daly-Judge Mining Company.

Judgment was entered today in the United States district court against the Daly-Judge Mining company for $1,750 damages. The decision, which was made by stipulation, was in favor of Victor Norberg, whose son Herman Norberg was killed in August, 1902, by being struck by a descending cage while timbering the shaft. The accident occurred in the Anchor mine, a property which was purchased by the Daly-Judge company after the accident occurred. The original suit was for a much larger amount.

STRUCK HIS WIFE.

And Now Mrs. Treene Henderson Is Suing for Divorce.

Treene Henderson filed suit for divorce in the district court today against Alexander Henderson on the ground of cruelty. They were married at River-ton on Feb. 15, 1902. It is alleged that defendant, on Nov. 15, 1904, struck plaintiff in the face twice with his hand and on Dec. 10 he shook his fist in her face and threatened to strike her unless she gave him $40, which she had collected as rent from a piece of property which she owned before their marriage. At the same time he called her abusive names and told her that he had no further use for her. It is alleged that defendant owns property valued at about $5,000, and plaintiff asks to be awarded a reasonable sum as permanent alimony and attorney's fees.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Hall today granted Luna B. Clark a divorce from Elia B. Clark on the grounds of desertion and failure to support. They were married at Durango, Colo., on Aug. 7, 1896, and defendant deserted his wife on June 3, 1898.

Arguments in the second trial of the damage suit of Elizabeth Conover against Salt Lake City et al. were completed today, and the case submitted to the jury at 1 o'clock. The case was evidently giving the jury some trouble, as they had not returned up to 2:30 o'clock.

Suit has been filed in the district court by B. F. Cummings against Joseph A. West and Joseph Nelson to recover the sum of $500.00, alleged to be due on a judgment recovered against West in 1896. It is also asked that a restraining order be issued to restrain defendants from disposing of certain property in the hands of Nelson as security for the payment of the money due.

LAID TO REST.

Services at the Grave Over the Remains of J. H. Snowball.

Short funeral services over the remains of J. H. Snowball, whose death from diphtheria is announced in another part of this issue, were held at the grave in the city cemetery at one o'clock this afternoon, Bishop M. S. Woolley of the Twenty-first ward officiating. Touching music was furnished by members of the ward choir, and there was a profusion of beautiful floral emblems, testifying to the high esteem in which the deceased was held by a wide circle of relatives and friends.

Mr. Snowball was the son of Ralph and Jane Snowball and was born in this city 33 years ago. He was a highly respected young man and for many years had been employed at the Freed Furniture house, where he gained the confidence and love of his associates. The cause of death was diphtheria, from which he had suffered for about two weeks. He leaves a wife and six children, the former and two of the latter being afflicted with the same disease. The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved in their hour of sorrow.

LATE LOCALS.

Today's local bank clearings amounted to $640,335, as against $525,178.09 for the same day last year.

One case of smallpox was reported to the board of health today, that of Nettie Matson, aged 28, residing in the rear of 237 Second East street.

Gus S. Holmes, Jr., will leave the first of the year for New Haven, where he is to enter the graduating class of the Sheffield scientific school of Yale university, and take the degree of bachelor of philosophy in June next. Mr. Holmes wired the dean of the school last evening to that effect.

P. W. Ross is at the Kenyon from St. Anthony, Ida., and reports a most encouraging growth for that section of the Gem state. In fact the entire valley is being settled up at a remarkably fast rate. Thousands of acres have been taken up within the last six months.

Tomorrow Clerk Judd of the board of education will distribute warrants for the salaries of the principals and teachers of the city schools for the three weeks of this month and the officers and janitors will receive their salaries for the entire month. The total amount of both payrolls is about $28,000.

On Sunday next, at 11 a. m., the Union hall at 140 south Second East street will be dedicated by Rev. William H. Fish, Jr., with special services and appropriate music. At the close of the services a short address will be delivered, after which Mr. and Mrs. Fish will be tendered an informal farewell reception.

The Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company is sending to its subscribers as a Christmas souvenir a coupon which will entitle the holder to a free talk over the Utah toll lines for five minutes. The coupon comes with a circular which calls attention to the phenomenal development of the company's system, and the increase of facilities for wire communication between Salt Lake and so many distant parts of the west.

Yesterday was the shortest day in the year, when at 12 m. the sun reached the southernmost point of its annual travel, and is now "resting easy" for a few days preparatory to journeying north again. The point is called the winter solstitial colure. The first appreciable lengthening of the days will be in the evening. Then as the days begin to lengthen, so the cold begins to strengthen.

Albert Whitney, father of Manager Whitney of the Utah Implement company of this city, died at 6:30 last evening, at the residence of his son, 23 C street, at the age of 78. The deceased was a native of New York state, and has been a man of prominence in his time, but for the last two or three years has resided quietly in this city. The funeral will be held at 12 noon, tomorrow, and will be private, with interment at Mt. Olivet.

been working for two weeks on decorations for the kindergarten room and on presents for their fathers and mothers. This was their Xmas secret until yesterday, when they gave their party at 10:30 a. m. A large number of friends and parents assembled in response to invitations which had been sent out previously.

The following program was carried out:

"The Little Prayer of Thanks," "Good Morning Songs," "Greeting songs and games," "The Story of the Birth of Christ" was told in the usual interesting manner by Rebecca Morris.

The presentation song was nicely rendered. The presents were given out by the children to parents, after which they sang their "Good-Bye" song wishing every one a merry Xmas and happy new year and were then dismissed.

Where Christmas Shoppers Congregate.

Remarkable Fall Trade of a Flourishing Institution.

It is a great, good natured, pleased, bustling throng that is making things interesting at Keith-O'Brien's this week. Rarely does one see such a concourse of people remarkable for its size and yet with no appearance of crowding or hurrying; no jostling except in a good natured way; and all bent on securing Christmas giving articles. The broad, spacious aisles and the careful, thoughtful arrangement of the goods displayed makes choosing easy—shopping is a pleasure under such circumstances.

The policy of the management in closing the store at 6:30 Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings has had its effect on the salespeople; they are enthusiastic over their surroundings; they are obliging and anxious to please, and are not worn out and exhausted to the point of listlessness. They are helpful in their suggestions to shoppers, and obliging to the "I-don't-know-what-I-want" customer.

Down in the basement, toyland, filled supreme, and the throng of mothers and delighted children that filled the place from opening till closing time, seemed to find pleasure, Santa Claus sat in state and was interviewed by hundreds of eager little tots who lost no time in assuring him that they were good little boys and girls and they never run away, and always do as they are told, and always will, and they only want a sled and a cow, and a bank, and a sword and a elephant, an automobile and a train of cars.

Hundreds of letters have been received at the store, containing eloquent appeals for various articles, each addressed to "Dear Santa Claus," and written in scrawly, childlike handwriting in which is betrayed the eagerness that possessed the writers.

It is pleasant to contemplate upon the childlike faith of these tots. How their eyes brighten and their little hearts patter when they see Santa Claus. And how careful they are not to forget to mention that sister could not come but she wants a doll, etc., etc.

These have been daily occurrences at Keith O'Brien's for the past week, and their holiday trade has been immense. Beginning tonight the store will remain open.

The store is tastefully decorated with Christmas greens, and suspended over the grand staircase is a huge Xmas bell, which seems ready to peal out with glad tidings of joy to the Christmas worshippers. At the entrance are suspended also bells of red Immortelles, while within holly wreaths are everywhere drooping from pillars. Great snow balls are clustered to pillars in the main cross aisle, from which dangle more snowballs, the whole wreathed with holly and mistletoe. Throughout the magnificent store palms and evergreen add to the Christmas cheer that seems to permeate the entire store.
